The Junior League of Albany is a women's volunteer-driven organization that identifies the most pressing problems faced in our local community and creates solutions in collaboration with community partners

For more than 100 years, the Junior League of Albany has been influential in the establishment of community partners that have filled urgent needs and improved life in the Capital District. We have partnered with other organizations, helped raise funds, provided hands-on volunteers, and helped spread the word to assure these projects successfully meet community needs.
